

Use of TPI Centre data

1. Data and information published on the TPI Centre's website are intended principally for investor use but, before any such use, you should read these following terms and conditions to ensure you are complying with some basic requirements which are designed to safeguard the TPI whilst allowing sensible and open use of TPI methodologies and of the data processed by the TPI Centre. References in these terms and conditions to 'data' or 'information' on the website shall include the Carbon Performance data, the Management Quality indicators or scores, and all related information.
2. By accessing the data and information published on this website, you acknowledge that you understand and agree to these website terms and conditions. In particular, please read paragraphs 4 and 5 below which details certain data use restrictions.
3. The processed data and information provided by the TPI Centre can be used by you in a variety of ways – such as to inform your investment research, your corporate engagement and proxy-voting, to analyse your portfolios and publish the outcomes to demonstrate to your stakeholders your delivery of climate policy objectives and to support the TPI Centre in its initiative. However, you must make your own decisions on how to use the TPI Centre's data as the TPI Centre cannot guarantee the accuracy of any data made available, the data and information on the website is not intended to constitute or form the basis of any advice (investment, professional or otherwise), and the TPI Centre does not accept any liability for any claim or loss arising from any use of, or reliance on, the data or information. Furthermore, the TPI Centre does not impose any obligations on supporting organisations to use TPI Centre data in any particular way. It is for individual organisations to determine the most appropriate ways in which the TPI Centre can be helpful to their internal processes.
4. Subject to paragraph 3 above, the Management Quality and the Carbon Performance indicators that are part of the TPI online tool and available publicly on the TPI Centre website are:
 - Free, if they are used for internal and not for commercial purposes, including for research, as one of the inputs to inform portfolio construction, for financial decision-making including cases of lending and underwriting, for engagement and client reporting, for use in proprietary models as part of climate transition analysis and active investment management.
 - Restricted unless licensed where the use is for further commercial exploitation through redistribution, derived data creation, analytics, and index or fund creation (inclusive of where the index is used as the basis for the creation of a financial product, or where TPI data is a key constituent of a fund's construction).
 - For the terms of use of the sources supporting the TPI Centre's methodologies, please refer to the individual sectoral Carbon Performance methodology notes. To produce the TPI data, the Centre analysts may use CDP data as a secondary input for verification purposes, in addition to companies' published sources.
